

I AM MY CULTURE

My Culture is a seed I can plant.

Goals

Learning about the Sankofa Bird.

Tools

- *Tree diagram
- *Sankofa Bird Coloring Page
- *What is Culture Video

Chalkboard CHECK IN WHEEL

The word “Sankofa” literally means “To retrieve;” it is depicted by a bird looking back to pick up a seed on its wing. In the Acari language it means that we must look back to move forward. We learn from all our experiences. And as we look back, we help those along the way

Guided Instruction:

CULTURE IS A PART OF WHAT MAKES US. It is a pattern of behavior shared by a society or group of people. Many different things make up a society's culture. These things include food, language, clothing, tools, music, arts, customs, beliefs, and religion(.kids.britannica.com).

Watch Video: What is Culture?

Activity One:

Create a Family and Culture Tree (S.T.E.A.M- Art)

Family and Culture Tree Directions:

1. Make a list of the people in your life.
2. Next to each name put a dash and write down how they have planted a seed in your life. This can be by caring for you, studying with you, feeding you, helping you in some way.

Activity 2:

Sankofa Bird (S.T.E.A.M- Art)

The word “Sankofa” literally means “To retrieve;” it is depicted by a bird looking back to pick up a seed on its wing. In the Acari language it means that we must look back to move forward. We learn from all our experiences. And as we look back, we help those along the way

History is a key factor in understanding identity. If we do not know our past, we are at risk of repeating it.