

The Story of man in a Nutshell!

(From Paradise to Paradise)

(Walter Tschoepe – Website: thefigtreegeneration.net)

Just a short note before I start this article. You might be shocked to hear that God, LORD and Jesus are fake names put into our Bibles to replace the Real Names of our Heavenly Father and His Beloved Son. The True Names have been removed over 7000 times from our Bibles and replaced by God, LORD or Jesus which are not Names but titles like Mr. or Miss. Isn't it amazing if you ask a Muslim who he worships he will say Allah (which is translated God) which he thinks is the name of his Elohim and if you ask a Buddhist the name of his God, he will say Buddha which is his name, yet Christians do not even know the name of who they worship, they just say LORD and God which is being used for every no-god or idol.

The Bible records in a few words about how life on this planet began with the words, "In the beginning God (YHVH - Yahuwah) created the heavens and the earth," Genesis 1:1. Creation took place in six literal 24-hour days about 6,000 years ago. This is a simple statement, but it answers the most basic and scientific of all questions: How did it all begin and where did we come from?

Hebrews 11:3 adds another detail: "By faith [by trusting what Yahuwah has revealed] we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of Yahuwah, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible." (New Revised Standard Version)

On the sixth day of Creation week Adam was created in the image of YHVH. In Chapter two of Genesis, Eve was created by taking one of Adams ribs, and they were both told to be fruitful, to multiply, and to replenish the earth, and subdue it. They were to have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth (Genesis 1:28).

In Genesis 2:16-17 “ יהוה (Yahuwah) Elohim commanded the man, saying, eat of every tree of the garden, 17 but do not eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and, for in the day that you eat of it you shall certainly die.” (The Scriptures)

However, Adam chose to rebel against his Creator by eating of the forbidden tree, and he lost his innocence, incurred the penalty of physical and spiritual death, and his mind was darkened by sin, as are the minds of his successors. Adam and Eve were expelled from the Garden of Eden and Cherubims with a flaming sword, which turned every way, were stationed at the entrance to keep them away from the tree of life.

In response to the serpent's deception and Adam's and Eve's disobedience, YHVH pronounces curses on the serpent and on Satan as well on Adam and Eve and on the generations to follow.

YHVH promises to make enemies of Satan and the woman, on their offspring, or seed that will remain enemies until the end of time, the day of judgment. But there was a prophecy of hope in the rest of this verse “... it (the seed of the woman) shall bruise thy head, and thou (Yahusha Messiah) shalt bruise his heel.”

Yahusha (Yahuwah in the flesh) partook of the nature of humanity that “through death he might bring to naught him that had the power of death, that is, the devil” (Heb. 2:14).

In time, Eve bore Adam two sons – Abel, who became a shepherd, and Cain, who grew crops. Abel set forth the firstborn of his flock as an offering to YHVH, while Cain offered the fruit of the ground. But when Cain’s offering was rejected, he was filled with fury and killed his brother, making him the first murderer.

In time, Eve bore Adam another son, whom they named Seth, and it was through him that the holy line continued, the ancestors of Yahusha Ha Mashiach.

Enoch was the son of Jared and of the seventh generation from Adam via Seth. A pious man, who spent his life in the fellowship of Yahuwah (YHVH), ‘walking with YHVH’, he prophesied that Elohim would bring all sinners to judgment. Enoch, like Elijah many centuries later, did not die but was taken directly to heaven by YHVH.

Things began to take a turn for the worse very quickly.

Humanity multiplied and violence reigned. Cain killed his brother Abel. One of Cain’s descendants, by the name of Lamech, became a man renowned for violence boasting his exploits (Genesis 4). This happened over a period of 1650 years. The wickedness of man became so great that YHVH was sorry that He had made man and He decided that the only remedy was to destroy man and beast by water, except Noah and his family and representative animals, for Noah had found grace in the eyes of YHVH.

Not long after the Deluge, people corrupted themselves again, turned from their Creator and wanted to make a name for themselves by building a structure called, the Tower of Babel in the land of Shinar (Babylonia). However, YHVH disrupted the work by so confusing the language of the workers that they could no longer understand one another. The city was never completed, and the people were dispersed over the face of the earth. The story of its construction, given in Genesis 11:1–9, explains the existence of diverse human languages. According to Genesis, the Babylonians wanted to make a name for themselves by building a mighty city and a tower “with its top in the heavens.”

Nearly a thousand years after the building of the Tower of Babel YHVH called Abram (which means exalted Father in Hebrew). His name was later changed to Abraham, which means Father of a multitude in Hebrew. He was asked by YHVH to leave His home in Ur, in Mesopotamia. Mesopotamia is today known as Iraq, Syria, and Turkey. It is there that the civilizations of Sumer, Babylon and Assyria existed. YHVH called him to establish a new nation in an undesignated land that he later learned was Canaan. He obeyed unquestioningly the commands of Elohim, from whom he received repeated promises and a covenant that his “seed” would inherit the land.

One important point to remember is that Abraham’s family was polytheistic: they “served other gods” (Joshua 24:2). He came out of paganism to serve the one living Elohim, who had called him.

Abraham is remembered in Scripture as the “Father of Faith!” Romans 4:3 “... Abraham believed YHVH, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.” His faith was proven through actions in that he obeyed and left his country and moved to a country he did not know. Yes, there was faith in the Old Testament, a lot of faith. Faith is an action word, because without actions faith is dead as James stated.

Abram was 75 when YAH called him to leave his home, 86 when his first son Ishmael was born through Hagar, 99 when he was circumcised, and 100 when his son of promise Isaac was born through his wife Sarah (Genesis 12-21).

Within Judaism, Christianity, and the Islamic faith, Abraham is a venerated patriarch.

In Genesis chapter 22, YHVH comes to Abraham to prove his allegiance and commands him to sacrifice his “only” son Isaac to Elohim. Some people think that Isaac was a young boy. No, he was a grown man, about 37 years old and Abraham 137. As Abraham obeyed, an angel stopped him. At the same time, YHVH provided a ram instead and blessed Abraham.

The entire Bible points to Yahusha as our Messiah. Most know this especially is true in Genesis 22. This passage is like a lock and Yahusha the Messiah is the key that unlocks it for us. Yahusha is the true Isaac. An exchange happened; a ram was exchanged for Isaac. This points to the greater exchange that happened at Calvary. Yahusha takes the place of all those who should have come under the death penalty because they now accept and obey His word and believe on Him that sent Him.

Isaac was the son of promise. Isaac’s wife, Rebecca, bore twins Esau (the first born) and Jacob the second born. Next, Jacob and his mother Rebekah, co-conspired to acquire the blessing of the birthright from Jacob's aged father, Isaac. by deception

He began to fear the wrath of his brother. Because of the encouragement of his mother and the recommendation of his father, Jacob fled to the land of Haran. There he was to find a wife. Jacob did fall in love with Rachel, his cousin, and negotiated to serve seven years of labor to acquire her hand in marriage. However, Jacob's uncle Laban deceived Jacob and gave him his older sister Leah instead of Rachel according to their custom. Bargaining for another seven years of labor for Rachel, Jacob did eventually earn Rachel as his wife. Jacob was 84 years old when he married Rachel and Leah. He was 91 years old when Rachel gave birth to Joseph, he was 100 years old when Benjamin was born, 107 years old when Joseph was sold to Egypt and he died when he was 147. Jacob proceeded to build his family. He had six sons and a daughter from his wife Leah, two sons from Leah's maidservant, two sons from his wife Rachel's maidservant, and two sons from his wife, Rachel.

After another six years of working for Laban, without announcement Jacob left to return to his father's house. He was afraid, rightly so, to meet his brother Esau. So, he sent a peace offering and greetings ahead of time to his brother Esau, who was on his way with 400 armed men to meet him. He also sent his family on ahead of him so he could spend the night in communion with YHVH. During his time, he was visited by an Angel, which we believe was Yahusha. This unusual visit was spent in a wrestling match between the Angel and Jacob. As the Angel could not overcome Jacob, he touched his hip and caused it to be wrenched from then on. Jacob refused to release the Angel until he blessed him. From then on YHVH changed Jacob's name to Israel, which means "struggles with Elohim."

When Jacob resumed his journey home and met up with his brother Esau, the brothers met as friends and continued that relationship through the remainder of their lives. Rachel died during the birth of her last son Benjamin. Shortly after, Jacob suffered severe grief again when he was convinced that his favorite son Joseph had died.

However, Joseph was sold to Egypt by his brothers, and ended up serving 10 years in prison because of Potiphar's wife's baseless accusation. Eventually, he was elevated to be second in command in Egypt through Yahuwah's leading to save his families and the land of Egypt during the 7 years of famine.

During this severe famine, Jacob's sons went to Egypt to acquire much-needed food. The events that ensued led Jacob to Egypt to be reunited with his long-lost son Joseph. He had his entire family together, settled in Egypt for about seventeen years until the end of his life. His dying request was that he be buried where his fathers had been buried in the Promised Land.

After Joseph and the old Pharaoh died, a new Pharaoh came that knew not of Joseph and what he had done for Egypt. This resulted in the children of Israel being severely mistreated and oppressed by the new Pharaoh. Moses was called by YHVH to deliver Israel out of Egypt. Pharaoh did not allow them to follow Moses into the wilderness to worship YHVH and thus denied a measure of their religious freedom. Elohim hears the cry of His people and does something about it. After 10 plagues passed over the land of Egypt they were finally let go after the 10th plague killed every firstborn in the land of Egypt.

There were about six hundred thousand men, not including the women and children that left Egypt at that great event. Many other people, called the mixed multitude, who were not Israelites went with them, as well as a large number of sheep, goats, and cattle.

The Israelites had lived in Egypt and Canaan for 430 years. (At that time they were under Egyptian rule in the land of Canaan.) Of the full 430 years – half of this time was in Egypt. The Jewish historian, Josephus, explains that the Israelites left Egypt 430 years after Abraham travelled to Canaan, and 215 years after Joseph invited Jacob and his family to settle in Egypt.

After the 10th plague upon Egypt, (when all the firstborn were killed), Pharaoh was finally convinced to let the Israelites go. They traveled from Rameses to Succoth and then to Etham on the edge of the desert, led by a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night.

Pharaoh had not learned anything yet, because he pursues the Israelites with chariots and overtakes them.

When the Israelites see the Egyptian army, they are afraid, but the pillar of fire and the cloud separates the Israelites and the Egyptians. At YHVH's command, Moses held his staff out over the water, and throughout the night a strong east wind divided the sea, allowing the Israelites to walk safely through on dry land with a wall of water on either side. The Egyptians continued to pursue them, but at daybreak YHVH clogged their chariot-wheels and threw them into a panic. With the return of the water, the Pharaoh and his entire army are destroyed. When the Israelites saw the power of Elohim, they put their faith in HIM and in Moses, and sang a song of praise to Yahuwah for the crossing of the sea and the destruction of their enemies. (This song, found in Exodus 15, is called the Song of Moses).

The Israelites left Egypt on the first day of Unleavened Bread, arriving at the foot of Mount Sinai on the 47th day of the Omer Count. Three days later everyone is summoned to meet Yahuwah at the bottom of MT Sinai. This is where they received the 10 Commandments with the statutes and judgments and sealed the Book of the Covenant (Exodus 19 to 24). That was the day of Shavuot, which was later called the day of Pentecost, when Ruach was poured out on the believers, exactly 50 days after the Wave Sheaf Festival and 10 days after the second ascension of Yahusha.

During this time Moses had 10 Encounters with Yah from Exodus 3 to Exodus 34 while he was acting as the earth's visible mediator – or – the representative of our Highest Melchizedek Priest. Yes, Moses was a “Melchizedek Priest” for the people – their righteous king and priest and leader carrying out the commands of Yahuwah.

There are many different kinds of “other books” spoken of in Scripture. However two of them are very different books and very important books. They are: the “Book of the Covenant” and the “Book of the Law. The Book of the Covenant laws are “forever and everlasting” laws, never nailed to the cross. These instructions are Yahuwah's "everlasting covenant" that He has said He will not, and cannot break. (See: Ps 89:34 [KJV] where it says: “my covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.”) While Yahuwah cannot violate His covenant, mankind can – and has! This covenant was with Israel in Exodus 19 just after coming out of Egypt -- they were in the 3rd month -- just 3 days before Pentecost as I just mentioned when Israel agreed to accept and to obey Yahuwah's covenant. As the story continues, Israel could barely tolerate listening to Yahuwah speaking from the mountain, proclaiming the 10 Commandments, when they started to complain bitterly, after the 10th commandment was spoken. Their complaint to Moses was that they did not want to listen to "one more word of the covenant" from the thunderous voice of Yahuwah, lest they die! Thus, they begged Moses to "go back up the mountain" (like he had done three times already in Exo 19) and "get the rest of the words of the covenant -- and bring them back to the people -- THEN they decided they will listen, hear, accept and obey. This information is pretty easy to find in Exo 20:18-21.

So, that's exactly what Moses did ... he went back up the mountain to get the rest of the everlasting covenant ... which is recorded in Exo 20:22 to the end of Exo 23. ALL of these words (or instructions) are part of the everlasting Book of the Covenant ... including the FEASTS AND FESTIVALS found in Exo 23:10-17 [with the weekly Sabbath nestled right in the middle at verse 12 ... showing that all the worship statutes stand together. There should never be any more argument about this issue as it is noticeably clear where the "rest" of the words of the Everlasting Covenant actually had their beginning -- from the voice of the Elohim that brought them out of the land of Egypt (Exo 20:1-2).]

In Exo 24:1-11, "those words" of the covenant were spoken to the people; written in the Book of the Covenant; and then read to the people from THAT book -- with their 3rd acceptance to accept this covenant AND be obedient. They had never said that part before about being obedient in comparison to the first two acceptances found in Exo 19. THEN, the Book of the Covenant [BoC] was sprinkled with blood, (making it blood ratified), as were the people ... THEN Moses and 75 elders took THAT BoC part way up Mt Sinai to have the Covenant confirming meal – which now "seals the deal" of "not adding and not taking away from the BoC" -- ever! Disobedience is the death penalty!

After this meal, Moses takes the BoC all the way to the top of MT Sinai -- as these words that have been blood ratified are going to be transcribed to tables of stone with Yahuwah's own finger. The BoC only reaches to Exo 24:11. However, it is important to note what is written in the next verse – Exo 24:12!

Exo 24:12 “And Yahuwah said unto Moses, come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.” (KJV)

Did you notice that Yahuwah said He was going to give him Tables of Stone ... AND a law, AND commandments which "he has also" written? And these "other" laws and commandments were to be taught by Moses?!

They were to take possession of the land YHVH had promised their forefathers, a land “flowing with milk and honey” (Exodus 3:8). Prior to entry, the people wanted to send 12 spies to Canaan to search the land. Ten spies (the majority) brought back a bad report saying they would not be able to oust the current inhabitants of the land, even though YHVH told them they could through His power. That was mistrusting the Almighty.

Their lack of belief in YAH’s word and promises brought forth His wrath on them. He cursed them with forty years of wilderness wandering and all men over the age of 20, in that unbelieving generation died off, never stepping foot in the Promised Land.

Joshua and Caleb were the only ones that had brought back a good report and believed that Yahuwah is able to give them the Land. We find the report in Numbers 13:30 “And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.” KJV

Moses went up Mount Sinai to receive instructions from Elohim for Israel and stayed there 40 days and 40 nights but when he came down the mountain with the Ten Commandments, Israel had already turned to idolatry by making a golden calf with the help of Aaron.

And as soon as Moses came near the camp and saw the golden calf, he throws down the tablets of stone breaking them at the foot of the mountain. He then took the calf that they had made and burned it with fire; ground it to powder and scattered it on the water. Next, Moses made the people of Israel drink it.”

Besides Aaron, the tribe of the Levi's did not partake in this apostasy. So YHVH (not Moses) commanded that these Levites kill their brothers, friends, and neighbors that took part in that great sin. This may sound unreasonable. But remember, everyone had just agreed to come into covenant with YHVH and “be obedient.” Worshipping a golden idol was done in complete disobedience. This part of the agreement is found in the covenant many times (Exo 20:4; 22:20; 23:24; 23:33). Three thousand people died on that day because they broke their part of the covenant agreement. Moses knew the magnitude of what the nation has done when he was still at the top of the mountain. When speaking with YHVH he identifies with the people to the point of asking the Most High to delete him out of the Book of Life rather than placing the whole camp under the death penalty for what a few had done. You see, the agreement was: there was a death penalty for breaking this covenant – and they all knew it. Acting as the earthly representative and Melchizedek Priest for YHVH, Moses interceded that YHVH would forgive the people of this great sin. Yes, YHVH did forgive them – but there would be some changes coming because of this great violation. This was the time when the Melchizedek priesthood was changed to the Aaronic priesthood within the tribe of Levi. Only the sons of Aaron were given the job description of being priests for YHVH. This was because of their faithfulness in not participating in the golden calf apostasy.

The Aaronic priest hood was only in effect until the Savior would come to give His life for man – thus He would pay the death penalty that was waived at Mt Sinai. Why? The covenant agreement was: “a death penalty had to be carried out.” But, due to the pleading of Moses the death penalty was not carried out under Plan A (so to speak). Plan B was a new set of laws that brought in a new priesthood along with the earthly sanctuary in order to teach the people about the Messiah that would come to die in their place, fulfilling the terms of the death penalty under Plan A. Once that death penalty is paid, then the Aaronic priesthood is no longer needed; and everything is reset back to the original Melchizedek priesthood with Yahusha being the High priest in His heavenly sanctuary. As proposed in Exo 19:3-6, the promise was that His people would be a nation of “kings and priests – a holy nation and a peculiar nation.

The Hebrews wandered in the desert of Sinai Peninsula for 40 years. After that detour through the wilderness and stopping at 42 different resting places, or campsites, the Israelites, under the leadership of Joshua, entered the promised Land. Moses was not allowed to enter Canaan because of his sin at the Waters of Meribah, which took place during the last year of their wandering. Moses instead of speaking to the rock as he was commanded, he struck the rock twice for water to come out. This rock represented the coming Messiah. Striking the rock the first time represented the Messiah’s death. After that, when approaching “the Rock” there is no need to strike again – only to speak to Him. According to Deuteronomy 34:7 Moses died when he was a hundred and twenty years old, yet his eyes were not weak, nor his strength gone. Moses died on the summit, of Mount Nebo. YHVH buried him secretly, and no one knows to this day where his grave is (Deuteronomy 34:5–6). But the good news is: Moses was resurrected shortly thereafter. Remember he was present at the Mount of Transfiguration.

The Israelites settled among the Canaanites and the Philistines. The Old Testament tells of Joshua's victorious battles against these people. The land was divided among the twelve tribes as promised and they enjoyed peace for a while. Israel began to be unhappy and they wanted a king like all the surrounding nations that would go to war with them.

The people served Yahuwah throughout the lifetime of Joshua and throughout the lifetime of those elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the great deeds which Yahuwah had done for the sake of Israel (Judges 2:7-10). “And when that whole generation had been gathered to its ancestors, another generation followed it which knew neither Yahuwah nor the deeds which he had done for the sake of Israel” (Joshua 2:10).

Israel entered the Promised Land at about 1250 B.C.E. Judges were appointed to rule after the death of Joshua. While we may not know the exact date when the judges began to rule, we are told how long each judge ruled, and how long each period of peace lasted. Some of these judges clearly overlap, and some judges ruled only part of Israel, while another judge was ruling another part.

Time of the Judges may have been from about 1200 B.C. to 1100 B.C. In Judges 17:6 it states, “In those days [there was] no king in Israel, [but] every man did [that which was] right in his own eyes.” KJV

The primary message of Judges is that YHVH would not, and could, not allow sin to go unpunished. They had forsaken the covenant established at Mount Sinai. In Judges, He disciplined them for following other gods, disobeying His sacrificial laws, engaging in blatant immorality, and descending into anarchy at times. Yet because they were His people, He listened to their cries for mercy and raised up leaders to deliver them. Unfortunately, even these godly individuals did not wield sufficient influence to change the nation’s direction. The people’s inability to resist sinful Canaanite influences eventually revealed their desire for a centralized monarchy, led by a righteous king whom Elohim would choose as His intermediary.

Yahuwah gave in to their wishes and when the prophet Samuel was old, he called Israel to Mizpah and presented Saul as the first king over united Israel. Saul and his successor, David, eventually overthrew their oppressors — the Philistines and other nations that controlled parts of Israel.

David also stretched the limits of Israel's power to include much of the Middle East.

Under King Solomon, as David's successor, Israel reached the zenith of its power and wealth. Solomon built the first temple.

YHVH appeared to him twice in a dream, but his wealth, success and his many foreign wives brought him to fall. He started building temples for strange gods to please his foreign wives, sacrificed to them, which made YHVH incredibly angry for these abominations. YHVH told Solomon expressly not to multiply gold, horses, and wives, but he did it anyway.

1 Kings 11:11 KJV "Wherefore YHVH said unto Solomon, forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant."

With Solomon's death, however, the kingdom was divided into Judah (2 tribes – the Southern Kingdom) and Israel (10 tribes, called the Northern Kingdom). Israel never reached the political greatness it had under King David and Solomon.

Kings came and kings went. Some obeyed YHVH and followed Torah, and some refused to follow Torah serving the Elohim of their heathen neighbors. They fought each other. They ignored the instructions of their heavenly King. For that reason, He withdrew his blessings from them and sent them into captivity. Israel was conquered by the Assyrians (2 Kings 17:6) and Judah was conquered by the Babylonians (2 Chronicles 36:20).

During a time of 210 years, the 10 tribes of Israel, known as the Northern kingdom, were governed by 19 different kings, who were all rebellious or wicked kings. Seven prophets lived during that time: Abijah, Elijah, Micaiah, Elijah, Jonah, Amos, and Hosea.

In 722 B.C.E., the northern half of Hebrew lands known as Israel was invaded and mostly destroyed by the Assyrians because of their apostasy from the Creator and His instructions, called Torah. The southern half, known as Judea, survived until around 606 B.C.E., when the Babylonians defeated the Judeans (in the first of 3 attacks). and carried most of them back as captives to Babylon.

Yahuwah regarded Israel's disobedience and their serving other Elohim as adultery. For that reason, he divorced them; he separated from them.

In Deuteronomy 28:64 their fate was prophesied: “And YHVH shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other Elohim, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.” KJV

The loving, but sad Father vowed: “And I will scatter you among the heathen...” (Leviticus 26: 33). And He did exactly that. Because of their unfaithfulness they were scattered among the nations. The ten tribes were taken to Assyria as prisoners. From there they disappeared from the records. (Of course, the descendants of the ten tribes are not lost for YHVH knows exactly who they are and where they are.)

During a time of about 300 plus years Judah, known as the southern Kingdom, was governed by 20 different kings, eight of them were considered good or faithful to YHVH and 12 were rebellious or considered apostate. The prophets that lived during that time were Shemaiah, Joel, Isaiah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, and Jeremiah.

Judah refused to turn from their wicked ways and in 606 BC Nebuchadnezzar sent them into the Babylonian captivity!

This is recorded in 2 Kings chapter 25. This captivity was to last 70 years (see Jeremiah 25:11-12). During the captivity in Babylon men like Daniel and Ezekiel were moved by the Spirit of Yahuwah.

Judah apostatized and did not keep the commanded land-sabbath over a period of 490 years. As a penalty they went into the Babylonian captivity, so their land could rest for 70 years. During this period of captivity, they acquired many pagan teachings, which they still adhere to today. As an example, the Bible teaches that the day starts at dawn. The Babylonians started their days in the evening by looking for the sun going down. The Israelites were not to look to the sun or the moon. The Babylonians looked for the new moon after the spring equinox to begin their year and also to begin their months.

Under Zerubbabel, Ezra and Nehemiah, Judah was permitted to return to the Promised Land and to build the second temple. This remnant of Judah served YHVH and preserved the faith of their fathers! To them was committed and entrusted the oracles of salvation!

The heavenly Father Yahuwah and the Son Yahusha, also called the Word, (John 1:1) planned "before the foundation of the world" that the Word would be born as a human being to cover our repented and forsaken sins and also to set a perfect example for mankind of how to live a godly life.

According to John 1:1 the Word became flesh and dwelt among us. Yahusha is Yahuwah in the flesh, whose ministry while on earth lasted a little more than one year, exactly 70 weeks or 490 days according to the prophecy in Daniel 9. His ministry was not 3 ½ years as taught in Christianity. The first one to mention a three-year ministry might have been Origen in commentary on Matthew (Book XXIV), written late in his life. But Eusebius (early in the 4th Century) was the first to argue for a 3 ½ year ministry, which is half a week (in symbolic prophetic time a half week is half of 7 literal years). These calculations refer to the 70-week prophecy of Daniel chapter 9. He had no other arguments for his stand.

During His ministry here on earth, Satan tried everything in his power to kill the Redeemer. Right after His birth, Satan used Herod to make sure that the Savior would be killed by slaying all the boys under the age of 2 in Bethlehem and in all of the coasts thereof. Satan tried to get Yahusha to fall when He was sent by the Spirit into the wilderness. When He had fasted for 40 days, Satan thought for sure that he would be successful with his plan, especially in his human form to make Him sin. When Yahusha started His ministry, the Pharisees were continually out to find something which would justify killing Him.

Yahusha allowed himself to be tortured to near death before He laid down His life in order to pay the penalty of sin according to John 3:16 and Romans 5:6-10.

YHVH

When the Jews turned Yahusha over to the Romans to be crucified, they crucified the Creator YHVH according to the Hebrew inscription above the execution stake!

The book of Hebrews explains how the animal sacrifices and temple rituals required of ancient Israel were a physical type of the perfect sacrifice of Mashiach. They pointed to the future "Lamb of YAH who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). The sacrifice of the lamb for Passover dramatically pointed to "Yahusha, our Passover [who] was sacrificed for us" (1 Corinthians 5:7). As a fulfillment of prophecy, Yahusha died on the very day of Passover on His Covenant Calendar. The lamb's blood on the doorposts of the Israelites' houses symbolized the shed blood of Messiah who died so we can be forgiven and saved (Romans 5:9).

The leadership of the Jews at the time refused to accept Yahusha as their Savior. They followed Him every step, trying to catch him in order to kill Him. They hated him because He did not follow their traditions. Finally, they turned Him over to the Romans to be crucified on a tree and by that act sealed their doom!

But the disciples and the apostles, and the early believers, went about preaching the good news of a risen Savior as recorded in the book of Acts. They experienced the same hatred and resistance from the Jewish leadership and were persecuted and forbidden to mention the name of Yahusha, which they refused to do.

The Jewish Nation. continued to fall under the domination of other empires since they had rejected the Messiah. In 68 or 70 C.E., the Romans destroyed Jerusalem and sent most of the Jews into an exile that lasted until the 20th century.

During the first century early believers faced much hatred and persecution because of their faith in Yahusha Messiah. Fewer than 400 years after the death and resurrection of Messiah the period known as the Great Apostasy, began. Out of the 12 Apostles, all were martyred, save John. Peter was crucified upside down; Andrew was crucified on an X-shaped cross; James, the son of Zebedee, was decapitated; Philip was crucified; Bartholomew (Nathaniel) was flayed; Thomas was run through with spears; according to one account; Matthew was martyred by fire; James, the son of Alphaeus, was sawn to pieces; Simon the Zealot was crucified; Jude-Thaddaeus was hung on a cross and then killed by spears; and Matthias was martyred by stoning. In addition, Paul, the apostle to the nations, was beheaded. And so, it was that even from the beginning, becoming a follower of Yahusha Ha Mashiach was always arduous and fraught with danger. If one was going to live a set-apart life it required one to live apart from the intrinsic corruption of the pagan society of the Roman Empire. People were arrested and killed for bearing a testimony for Yahusha. It was against the law to have your own copy of the Scriptures. It was a time when people persecuted, tortured, and killed believers and when the so-called church itself had very little inspired leadership.

The world, as well as the Christian Church, was in spiritual darkness.

At this point of my writing, I would like to make a point and ask the question, “have you ever wondered who founded Christianity”? The dictionary says it was Jesus Christ. Christ = Christian, right?

During the first 300 years, a slow transformation within the professed believers of Messiah occurred. Emperor Constantine I established Christianity as the official religion of the Roman Empire. His goal was to "universalize" the many beliefs into one state-sponsored religion that would appease the majority of those he ruled. That majority was like himself, PAGAN.

First, I would like to clarify that there was no person ever known by the name of Jesus Christ until about less than 500 years ago. The name Jesus (first known as Iesous) was created by Constantine in the third century and is supposed to be a copy or an image of the Hebrew Savior that walked the earth and gave His life for us, whose name was Yahusha, which means YAH, the One who exists is salvation.

The word "Christianity" or "Christian" is not found in the Scriptures at all, so biblically, there is no such thing. "Christian" was a derogatory label placed on the followers of Messiah. The term "Christos" is Greek and had formerly a pagan usage.

The word christianos (Latin Christianus) was used twice in the Greek text as a device of scorn, since in the ancient world it conveyed a much different sense than it does today. The use of the word christianos did not "name" the sect, but it was a derisive, scornful label that meant they were like gullible, dumb beasts, or "cretins". (This information is from the book fossilized customs.)

What would a group of Israelites that practice the Torah of Yahusha and follow a Jewish or Hebrew Messiah be doing with a Greek term used by Pagans as a label for themselves? Would the Creator's religion have a Greek name? Remember also, our Messiah's Name is not the Greek "Jesus", but rather the Hebrew name "Yahusha."

As early as 200 BCE, there were Pagan worshippers of Serapis that called themselves "Christians". So, there were people that called themselves Christians on Earth before Yahshua was born, but these were Pagans.

Yahusha's followers were called Natsarim according to Acts 24:5!

Notice this information copied from the website listed below "Starting from the very first book of Bereshit/Genesis, we see the prophecy of the coming Messiah. Exodus, Psalms, the prophets, etc. all reference the coming Messiah. Upon His arrival Yahushua fulfilled those prophecies. He was the Messiah the Scriptures foretold. Taking this into consideration, Yahushua did not start something completely different and new. He was the fulfilled part of the Messianic prophecy already foretold. A continuation of the Tanakh. The entire Tanakh then is a Messianic book, or canon of books. On the flip side, though, that would mean that the religion of Judaism did not start until Yahushua came and the ethnic Jews refused to accept Him as such. With this in mind, the people of the Tanakh were not Jews, religiously. They were Messianics. So as a Messianic you are in good company with the likes of other Messianics: Moses, David, Ezekiel, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Jeremiah."

https://www.reddit.com/r/messianic/comments/eodoc6/yahushua_did_not_start_a_new_religion/

The Hebrew Messiah Yahusha was a Jew by religion and culture, but he was not a "Christian," neither did He start the Christian Church, nor did He start a new religion, as if the world needed one more new religion. He was the Word; He was Yahuwah (the Father) in the flesh according to John 1:1.

Christianity is man-made, created by Constantine, who was a sunworshipper until his death. The historical beginnings of Christianity are all but “hidden” and kept silent in today’s churches. ...The slightest research into the origins of Christianity will literally destroy your faith in it.

“All we need to know concerning the “new” religion that evolved at the hands of the Roman Emperor Constantine formalized at the Council of Nicaea we can learn from early scholars of the day and Catholic Church documents that live on historically. These all openly admit that the “religion” was neither “new” nor “strange” to the pagans of their day and that the only thing “new” about it was the name of the new “god” they created. This new god’s name was Jesus H. Christ or I.H.S in Latin.”

Yahusha stated in Matthew 15:24 "I have only come to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." He came to draw first HIS apostate people, the 10 tribes of Israel and then all mankind back to HIS Father, to the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, back to HIS Torah, statutes, and judgments! He came to call mankind to repentance (Matthew 4:17).

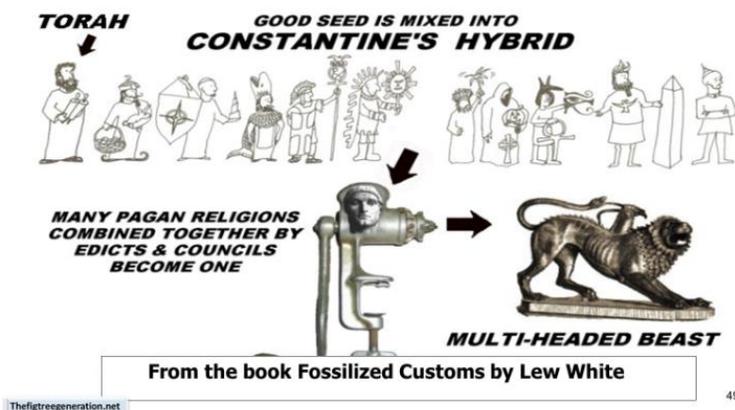

SUN GODS: Isis, Horus, & Seb

The Council of Nicaea was held around 300 AD and writers of that era admit what should now be obvious to the reader of this manuscript; if not it will be soon enough:

Eusebius of Caesarea (circa 283-371 CE) wrote: "The religion of Jesus Christ is neither new nor strange."

St. Augustine of Hippo (354-430 CE) wrote: "This, in our day, is the Christian religion, not as having been unknown in former times, but as having recently received that name."

Yes, Christianity was not new to the pagans and as St. Augustine pointed out it has been known all the way back to Babylon and only recently called "Christianity." Every Christian Church today from the Roman Catholic Church to every last Protestant denomination expresses its faith in what is called The Nicene Creed. This is the resulting creed that came out of the first council at Nicaea where Christianity and its fundamental doctrines of sun worship were formulated by Constantine to unite his kingdom through syncretism.

Constantine openly worshipped a pagan sun deity named Mithra, or Apollo, who was simply another name for Tammuz, or Baal, the sun god. Constantine believed the Hebrew Messiah

Yahshua was yet another incarnation of this second member of the Babylonian Trinity who is Tammuz. At the council in Nicaea Constantine set out to formulate a religion that all pagans, and all those who had newly found faith in Yahshua, could accept if he could twist the Scriptures to conform to his sun worship. Since Constantine believed Yahshua to be an incarnation of Tammuz, he had no problem replacing the Holy Days/Sabbaths/Feasts of YHVH with those of his god Tammuz/Apollo/Mithra. After all, to Constantine, Yahshua was the latest incarnation of them all and therefore he kept the Babylonian pagan days of worship. And of course, the re-incarnated “Tammuz” would have abolished the Sabbath/Holy Days of YHVH and established those of Sunday/Easter/Christmas in his image. This is what Constantine believed. He was the “Emperor” and what Constantine believed defined his empire.

Let us take a close look at Flavius Constantinius who ruled Rome and was literally “the author” of what we call Christianity today. Make no mistake, the religion of Christianity was not authored by the Jewish Messiah Yahusha as it has no relationship to the Hebrew Faith held by Adam, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, Joshua, David, Solomon, Yahusha, even the Apostle Paul, or any of the disciples or apostles of the early church in Jerusalem. “In fact, Constantine’s religion of Christianity is a carbon copy of The Mystery Religion of Babylon... sun worship” (Christianity, the Great Deception by RAV SHA’UL, page 54-55).

During the past 2,000 years our Bibles were corrupted and changed in order to agree with the new Greek Messiah, called Jesus. Our Father’s name of YHVH (Yahuwah), which means “the One who exists,” was over 7,000 times removed from the original Hebrew Scriptures and replaced with generic titles LORD (Ba’al) and God, which are being used for every idol or no-god.

Yahusha, which means “the One who exists saves,” was changed to Jesus as mentioned. Jesus means “Hail Zeus” and some claim the closest meaning is “earth pig.”

Teachings which apply ONLY to the true Hebrew Messiah Yahusha were brought over to the Christian Jesus, who was elevated to God. Biblical teachings were changed. Easter replaced Passover; the Sabbath is changed to Dies Solis (Sunday) in honor to the sun.

Here is a quick comparison of just some of the teachings between the true and the false Messiah:

Yahusha, Ha Mashiach
(True Messiah)

Jesus Christ
(Anti Messiah)

born in the Fall crucified on the 14th of Abib resurrected on the Third Day kept the Bible 7th day Sabbath kept the Feast days of Lev. 23

Go and sin no more
Much, much more

Only believe; stay as you are

For hundreds of years the people were presented a false Messiah with false doctrines. These man-made teachings are now ingrained in their minds and hearts, not knowing that they have been lied to according to Jeremiah 16:19. Few know they are worshipping a man-made Messiah and a message that is false! That means worshiping in vain according to Matthew 15:8-9, meaning absolutely worthless! How sad!

The vast majority of people, even though sincere were ignorant, they worshipped in vain according to Scripture. We must remember, it is the Most-High who is the ultimate judge. James 4:17 states “To him, then, who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.”

When Paul was in Corinth, he found that the Greeks had an altar dedicated to the unknown God. It states in Acts 17:22-24 “And having stood in the midst of the Areopagus Sha’ul said, “Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious in every matter. 23 “For passing through and observing the objects of your worship, I even found a slaughter-place with this inscription: TO THE UNKNOWN MIGHTY ONE. Not knowing then whom you worship, I make Him known to you: 24 “יהוה, (YHVH - Yahuwah) who made the world and all that is in it, this One being Master of heaven and earth, does not dwell in dwellings made with hands.” (The Scriptures 2009)

He continued in the verses 30-31 “Truly, then, having overlooked these times of ignorance, Elohim now commands all men everywhere to repent, 31 because He has set a day on which He is going to judge the world in righteousness by a Man whom He has appointed, having given proof of this to all by raising Him from the dead.”

However, millions of people were murdered during the Middle Ages because of their faith in the True Messiah and the true gospel. Why? Because they stood firm and did not cave in and remained faithful to true biblical teachings till death, what a blessing is awaiting them according to Scripture! Revelation 2:10 states “... be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.”

Religions are man-made. By definition religion can be almost anything. It can be Christianity, Atheism, Islam, Buddhism, Marriage, etc. The dictionary defines religion as "the belief in, worship of, or obedience to a supernatural power (or powers) considered to be divine or to have control of human destiny."

We were created for the glory of the one who made us and therefore it is mandatory to worship Him and Him alone. Everyone is created by Yahuwah for the reason of worship. Sin entered into the world as was mentioned in the beginning of this article. This brought separation between the Creator and man. Because of sin, Elohim said He was sorry He created man. However, Yahusha gave Himself as the sacrifice for those who accept HIM and follow HIM. It has always been the case and it is the same today, people around the world are worshipping creation instead of the Creator as inspired by Satan. People are worshipping false gods; they are worshipping idols; they are worshipping themselves, etc.

Paul predicted that before Messiah would return there would be a “falling away” in which the man of sin would be revealed, “the son of perdition, he that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called Elohim or that is worshipped so that he sitteth in the temple of Elohim, seeing himself that he is Elohim...For the mystery of iniquity doth already work ...” (2 Timothy 2: 2-7).

The same Apostle wrote to Timothy in 1 Timothy 4:1-3: “But the Spirit saith expressly, that in later times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats...”

Notice, it states doctrines of demons! In 2 Corinthians 11:14 we are told that “Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.” Is that taking place? Does Christianity with their false Messiah teach doctrines of demons? Let us be honest. Most of their teachings I already listed were in opposition to Biblical truth. They are teachings, and doctrines of man.

Adding false and pagan doctrines took place during the middle ages by the Roman Catholic Church. Then came the Protestant Reformation with Luther, Huss, Zwingli, Calvin, and Knox. They battled to wrest the Bible from the power and control of the Roman priesthood. The common people were not allowed to have the Holy Scriptures. In that way, the Roman religious power could easily manipulate and deceive them. During the Reformation, the Scriptures were translated into the language of the common man and thus gave him the truth that could make him free.

It was the goal of every reformer to go all the way back to the first Century Church and to “restore the original teachings.” But whoever tried to do that was hated and fiercely persecuted by the established churches.

Millions of Yahushas followers that were true to Torah, the statutes and judgments, were persecuted to death during those years. The historical record, which was controlled by spokesmen for Rome, pictured them as heretics and dangerous sorts, when the opposite was actually true.

When the faithful followers of the way could no longer assemble and worship publicly, they were forced to meet in their homes or in safe sanctuaries such as caves, catacombs, and mountain retreats. Their writings were not legal to be published and those that were, quickly were suppressed.

Many new Groups, Churches, sects, and cults sprang up after Luther in 1517 CE while trying to return to the teachings of the First Century Church.

Here is a list of the main ones:

Even though there was a spiritual revival going on, and an interest in proclaiming the Second Coming of the Messiah, Satan was doing his part in order to stop any real and complete reformation. It was Satan's aim to also stop every new group at some point in their efforts of reform. There were many old biblical truths discovered and accepted, but as groups they never restored all of the divine institutions, which will have to be done before Yahusha returns. Every divine institution must be restored. (Also see Acts 3:21 for the "restitution of all things" "since the world began.")

Almost all Christian denominations, sects and cults claim, believe, and teach that they are the only true Church That absolutely cannot be true because true Bible believers that discover buried

Gems in Scripture are still being disfellowshipped if they do adhere to man-made, established doctrines and traditions just as took place at the first Coming of Yahusha.

Most people do not know, and they do not seem to care, that time for this planet is running out. You can count on that. The population was wiped out once before about 1650 after Creation or about 4,500 years ago. We are living in the year 2020/2021; time is running out. According to Scripture the Creator has given man 120 Jubilees (120 x 50 sets of years), or 6,000 years, which according to some calculations ends in the fall of between 2028 to 2030.

We may be living in the beginning of the time of the end right now, with the creation of the Corona Virus – COVID-19. The Messiah mentioned that before His return, there would be many signs signaling His Second Coming. He lists wars and rumors of wars.

The list also includes:

- (Matthew 24:7; Revelation 6:4); Famine.
- (Matthew 24:7; Revelation 6:5, 6); Great earthquakes.
- (Luke 21:1); Pestilences, or epidemics of “terrible diseases.”
- (Luke 21:11); Increase of crime.
- (Matthew 24:12); Ruining of the earth by mankind.
- (Revelation 11:18); Deterioration of people’s attitudes, as shown by many who are “unthankful, disloyal . . . not open to any agreement, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, without love of goodness, betrayers, headstrong, puffed up with pride.”
- (2 Timothy 3:1-4); Breakdown of the family, with people who have “no natural affection” and children who are “disobedient to parents.”
- (2 Timothy 3:2,3); Love of the Creator Elohim growing cold in most people.

- (2 Timothy 3:5); Having a form of godliness but denying the power thereof.
- (Matthew 24:12); Love of many waxes cold.
- Noteworthy displays of religious hypocrisy.
- (Daniel 12:4); Increased understanding of Bible prophecies, including those related to the last days.
- (Matthew 24:14); Global preaching of the good news of the Kingdom.

All the corruptions and fake news we witness worldwide within governments, politics, society, and religions, are signs of the end of the civilization, which have been prophesied in Scripture. It only makes sense to wake up out of our coma and to turn to the Creator, confessing and repenting of our sins and to submit to HIM. It is a fact that there is a Heaven to win and a hell to shun.

There is no organized Church or denomination within Christianity with their man-made Messiah Jesus that we can trust and believe. We must forget Judaism, Islam, Buddhism and every pagan religion or group.

Because the second commandment states "thou shalt have no other gods before me!" (Exodus 20:3) KJV

Following the traditions, teachings and doctrines of man would be worshipping other gods!

In order to be a member of any denomination in regular and good standing, you would not be able to follow a "thus saith YHVH" because you must submit to their established creeds or doctrines, even though they are not biblical.

There is only One we can trust and that is Yahuwah, the Creator and Yahusha who died for us almost 2,000 years ago. We are to trust in His instructions that He gave to Israel through

Moses, called Torah. These are for our benefit of protection, happiness and comfort. Some people claim that the Christian Jesus and the Hebrew Yahusha are one and the same. This is just a play on words. That is one of the great deceptions. Do your own research - do not leave that to someone else.

The facts are that there is a Creator, whose name is YHVH (Yahuwah) Who created this world about 6,000 years ago and sustains it. Because of Adam's fall all the following generations suffer. As a solution for the sin problem the Most-High became man through Yahusha 2,000 years ago to voluntarily give His life for the redemption of many that accept this sacrifice and come into harmony with His Torah given at Mt Sinai.

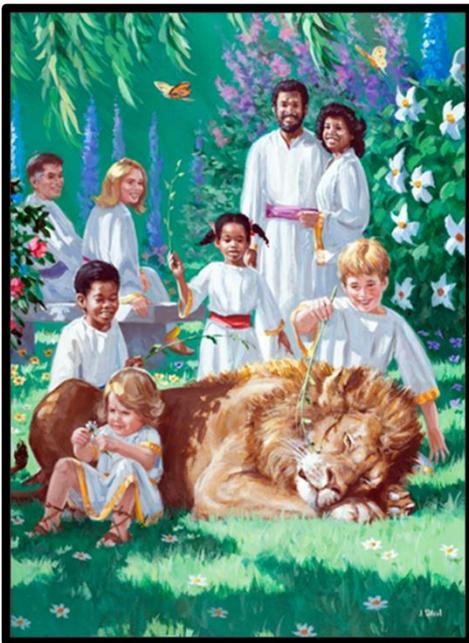

It is also a fact that Satan, the arch deceiver, the devil came along and as mentioned before, created a false messiah, which is an image, a copy called Jesus to deceive the world by presenting a false gospel saying that now we are saved by grace and faith only. The message that comes across is "the previous given instructions to man through Moses are no longer relevant." Just believe, however, forgetting that believing is an action word. Faith without action is dead. He introduced a counterfeit faith and multitudes fall for this deception. "The devils also believe, and tremble!" (James 2:19), but they do not have eternal life.

The final event will be the Second coming of the Messiah to bring an end to the sin problem; to take His people home; to destroy the wicked as well as Satan and his angels, before re-creating this world.

However, before His appearance Yahusha says to His faithful followers, there is going to be a lot of trouble in this world before it is all over. He stated in Matthew 24:21 "For then there will be great distress, unequalled from the beginning of the world until now--and never to be equaled again" (New International Version)

The coming of the bridegroom was at midnight - the darkest hour. So, the coming of Messiah will take place in the darkest period of this earth's history. The days of Noah and Lot pictured the condition of the world just before the coming of the Son of man. The Scriptures pointing forward to this time declare that Satan will work with all power and "with all deceivableness of unrighteousness" (2 Thessalonians 2:9, 10).

Then we read in Revelation 21:1-4 (KJV) “And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. 2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from YHVH out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of Elohim is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and YHVH himself shall be with them, and be their God. 4 And YAH shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.”

At the time when everything looks bleak, when everything is in an uproar, when there is famine, earthquakes, war, distress of Nations, when men’s hearts are failing them for fear, then look up, and lift up your heads; don’t be discouraged about what is going on around you, because these are signs, that Your redemption is drawing nigh.

For Yahuwah’s faithful children, for his loyal followers, now is the time to look up, it is time to rejoice, because the best is still to come, redemption, eternal happiness, and eternal life. But for the unbelieving, for the worldling, for the transgressors, for the wicked it will be a fearful thing to be waiting for the judgment.

I believe this generation, you, and I Live in, is an overly exciting time, meaning that this generation has the potential of witnessing the Second Coming of Yahusha the Messiah in the clouds of Heaven. This is a time, when the prophecies foretold hundreds of years ago are being fulfilled before our very eyes.

Just like Yahusha told his disciples how fortunate, how blessed they were to live in a time when the prophecies pointing to His first coming were being fulfilled.

Accept the sacrifice of Yahusha Ha Mashiach and submit to HIM, who is standing there with outstretched hands, saying: "I have paid the ransom", Go free, I have served your time." Believe me and accept my offer by Faith. And then GO BY MY STRENGTH AND SIN NO MORE!

Prepare to mee thy Creator, He is at the Door!

The allotted time for sin to mature (120 Jubilees, 6000 years) is almost up, the last movements will be rapid ones, there will be an end to sin when the Messiah appears and for those who are redeemed,

THE BEST IS YET TO COME!

Statement of some biblical beliefs:

- The Division between Old and New Testament is man-made.
- The covenant Yahuwah made with His people is everlasting and His instructions and promises are still true.
- The Christian Church has not replaced the nation of Israel and cannot replace it because it is paganism.
- There has never been and there will never be a covenant made between YHVH and Christianity according to Scripture, only with the House of Israel and the House of Judah (Jeremiah 31 and Hebrews 8).
- Grace and mercy cannot exist without Torah.
- Scripture is a book about Hebrew People.
- Deuteronomy 28, especially verse 64-68, gives us a clear understanding of who the Hebrews are today.
- Israel is comprised of the natural born seed and those who choose to be grafted in.
- The Creator wants to be called by His name, for that reason He listed His name in the Hebrew Scriptures over 7,000 times. Lord and God are not names but titles which are being applied to every idol or no-god.
- The name Jesus has no meaning in Hebrew. His Hebrew name is Yahusha, which means “the One who exists saves.” The Father cannot have a Hebrew name and the Son a Greek name.
- That means when one calls on the name “Jesus”, even unknowingly, that person is calling on a man-made Messiah that never existed. The Christian Jesus is a copy, an image of the true Messiah Yahusha, but NOT Yahusha.
- The trinity is a pagan doctrine.
- Christmas, Easter, and Halloween etc. are of pagan origin and must not be kept by Yahuwah’s people.

- Yahuwah's seven yearly feast days are still binding today as well as the weekly Sabbath. They are not Jewish; they are Yahuwah's feasts. These are signs between YHVH and His people. These are statutes and still binding.
- The Biblical day is from dawn to dawn meaning that the weekly Sabbath starts at dawn also. Evening to Evening day start was reinforced when the exiles returned from Babylon while Israel was in captivity for 70 years.
- The moon does not determine the beginning of the month, nor year, this also comes from Babylon. The Biblical year starts the day after the spring equinox.
- Baptism according to Scripture is by immersion, baby baptism originated in paganism.
- There will be no reign of the true Messiah for one thousand years on this earth. When He returns, the righteous dead and the righteous living will be translated and taking to Heaven with Him; all the ungodly will be destroyed according to John 14:1-3. Yahusha, however, will reign on the earth made new for eternity.
