

Why is that important?

Yahusha stated in John 8:32 that ONLY truth can make us free!

When we worship YHVH, we must not only worship Him in Spirit but also in TRUTH! That is the only worship He can and will accept!

Just for clarification before I continue with my presentation: In my presentations I am using YHVH (Yahuwah) instead of LORD, which is a title and not a name and I am using Yahusha instead of Jesus, which is not a translation but a transliteration from a Greek mistransliteration and has no meaning, neither in Hebrew nor in English! YHVH (Yahuwah) and Yahusha are the actual original names and the true nature and character of them.

Back to our presentation with the title:

Searching for "The Truth!"

You noticed I highlighted the word "THE." There is only one truth, and it is the absolute truth. If there are no absolute truths, we have chaos. Take the law of gravity, as an example. If it were not an absolute, we could not be certain we could stand or sit in one place until we decided to move. Or if two plus two did not always equal four, the effects on civilization would be disastrous. Laws of science and physics would be meaningless, and commerce would be impossible. What a mess that would be! Thankfully, two plus two does equal four. There is absolute truth, and it can be found and understood.

That applies foremost to the question why we are here, what is the purpose and where we are going, and who is in control of this universe.

If we understand that our life is not an accident, it has a purpose and we are committed to the Great I AM, the Aleph – Tav, who is in complete control and we are determined to accept only what He says in His Word, make not flesh our arm, we will find the truth and salvation through Yahusha!

Truth seeking requires an open mind, determination, persistence, and humility. A commitment to truth-seeking will take us outside our comfort zone, it may require from us to admit things we would rather deny or calling us to difficult decisions and actions, even to the point of losing so-called friends.

When you find biblical truth and practice it, you find out quickly who your true friends are!

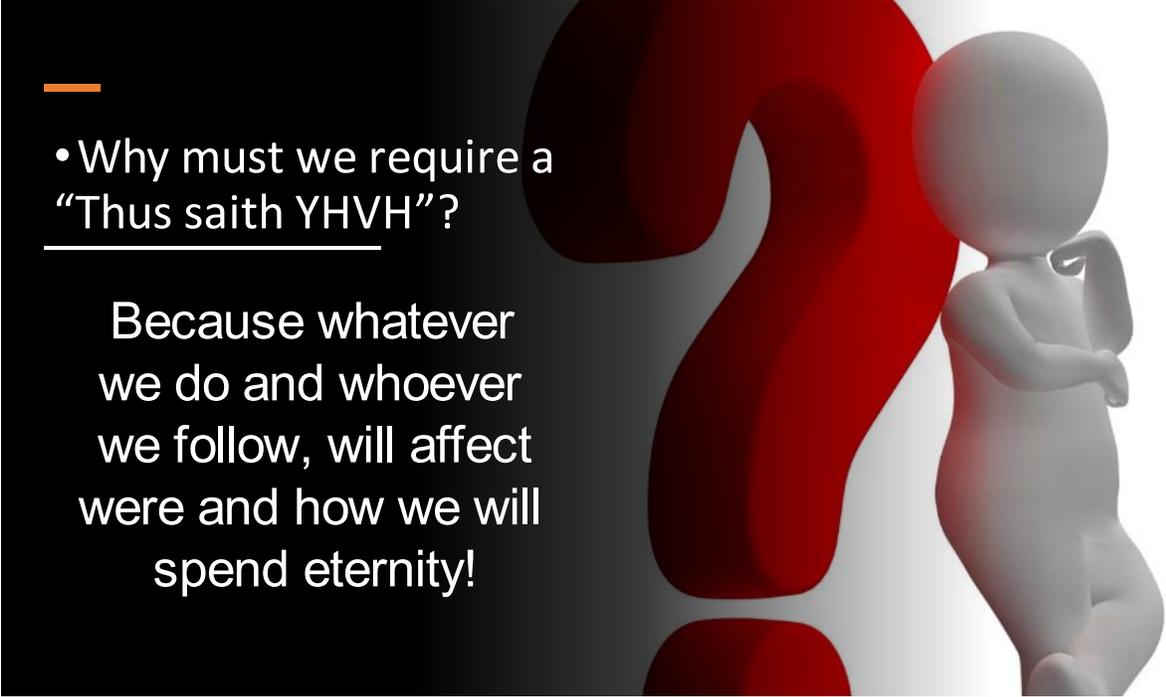

Our yearning for truth must exceed our yearning to please people!

Let's think about it, we show up on this planet and look around and wonder who the heck we are and what this world is all about. Learning the truth, finding out why we are here and what our purpose is in being here, involves a serious search, a serious desire and personal efforts to find out! We cannot leave this search to other people! This is a personal responsibility.

In today's society we are being bombarded from all sides by a vast number of messages claiming to be the truth, but that are nothing but lies. We are being brainwashed by Government, by Religion, through Education, Advertising, Television and Internet. We are told what to think, what to believe, what to eat and how to dress, what medication to take or what to buy! Especially during the Corona Epidemic, we must ask questions, but cannot believe everything we hear, see, and read. We need to prove ALL THINGS as Scripture commands!

We should never trust anything what we hear, see or read in matters of religion. We must by all means ask questions and for everything any church or denomination presents as truth, we must require a “Thus saith Yahuwah!”

- Why must we require a “Thus saith YHVH”?

Because whatever we do and whoever we follow, will affect were and how we will spend eternity!

There are so many different opinions and interpretations In Christianity in reference to biblical doctrines as there are denominations!

- The question is: “Who is right?”

Here is our first problem! Just saying YHVH (Yahuwah or Yahweh) instead of "LORD" in most of the Christian Churches, causes people to roll their eyes!

We need to ask why do they do that?

Because they don't agree with that, find it strange , even wrong! They are ignorant because they don't know the truth in this matter, they have been taught falsehoods!

We all have been lied to during our whole life!

In Jeremiah 16:19 it states: O YHVH, my strength and my stronghold, my refuge in the day of trouble, to you shall the nations come from the ends of the earth and say: "Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, worthless things in which there is no profit." ERV

Therefore, believe nothing you hear, nothing of what you read, and only some of what you see!

The reason being, because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour by deception. (see 1Peter 5:8)

You and I are commanded to "prove all things and to hold fast to that which is good." 1 Thessalonians 5:21

DON'T LEAVE IT TO SOMEONE ELSE!

The “Lord or Elohim” is a phrase in this world, which is well understood. The world hears the word “Lord” as an example and thinks whatever they have been programmed to understand. As an example, Lord Krishna is “Ravi” in Hindi. Ravi is the title for their sun deity, Surya, and means “Lord”.

The 1st day of their week is called RAVIVARA, or the “Lord’s Day.” Sunday (the day of the sun) is accepted as the “Lord’s Day.” The true Name of our Creator, the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, who blessed the 7th day as a remembrance of His rest and creation is NOT known, but HE has a name.

BUT MOST PEOPLE DON’T KNOW THAT NAME!

Psalm 23 begins with His name: “יהוה (YHVH) (Yahuwah) is my shepherd; I do not lack.”

However, if the Lord (as it states in the Christian Bibles) is our shepherd, then Baal could be our shepherd, because LORD is not a name, but a title and could mean anyone, like Allah, Buddha or Ba’al!

The removal of the true Name YHVH and substituting it with a title “LORD” goes against the 1st, 2nd and 3rd commandments. The replacement day of rest, Sunday, was done by Constantine in 321 CE and goes against the 4th commandment. Guarding the last 6 Commandments, which teach us how to love our neighbor is a fine thing to teach. But if we disregard the first 4 commandments that teach us how to love YHVH, what good is it? Sunday is the Sabbath like a covenant between a turtle and a woman is a marriage!

The 7th day is still blessed, and Constantine does not need our obedience. We are servants of the one we obey, so we need to be precise in both word and deed.

Again, we are dealing with eternal consequences, with eternal life or eternal damnation!

Let us be reminded that this life is SHORT, but eternity is LONG!

Satan is not fighting churches; he is joining them.
facebook.com/StopPlayingChurch
He does more harm by sowing tares than by pulling up wheat. He accomplishes more by imitation than by outright opposition.

Believers are being commanded in 1John 4:1 (The Scriptures) “..... do not believe every spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of Elohim, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.“

TRUTH OR TRADITIONS?

It is high time to prove the spirits and to cut loose from all traditions and doctrines of man that were introduced into Christianity during the past 2,000 years!

There are two groups, those that keep the commandments of YHVH and those who are stuck with the traditions and doctrines of man.

Matthew 12:30 states “He that is not with me, is against me!”

According to Wikipedia there are more than 41,000 denominations, churches, sects, individual unaffiliated churches, para-church groups etc. within Christianity alone, all are claiming one way or the other to have “The truth!”

THEY CAN'T ALL BE RIGHT, THERE IS NO WAY!

Let us look at some Christian denominations and Islam as an example and their claims of being the only ones having the truth that leads to eternal life!

What does Catholicism teach?

“For it is through Christ’s Catholic Church ALONE, which is the universal help toward salvation, that the fullness of the means of salvation can be obtained.” (Catholicism the Second Vatican Council’s Decree on Ecumenism)

“Infallible guidance in interpreting the Bible comes from the church.” (Meaning the Catholic Faith)

Is this conviction or statement of the Catholic Church based on a “Thus saith Scripture” or is it based on traditions and promises of man?

Mormonism

“This church is the only true and living church on the face of the whole earth.” “There is no salvation outside the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.”

Again the question: is their statement of belief based on a “Thus saith YHVH” or is it based on opinions and teachings of man?

Jehovah’s Witness

“We acknowledge as the visible organization of Jehovah on earth the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society.” “Outside the true Christian congregation what alternative organization is there? Only Satan’s organization ...” (Watchtower, April 15, 1939 p. 125 and March 1, 1979 p. 24.)

The Jehovah's Witnesses are convinced that they are the visible organization of YHVH and everyone else is damned, but do they have a “Thus saith YHVH” for their stand or is it wholly based on the opinions of man?

International Church of Christ

“There is one church! There is one Elohim. There is one kingdom of Elohim and this is it!” “We’re the last hope the world has.” (Gordon Ferguson, Radical Men, Radical Times Hosea Radical Love of Elohim, Manila World Leadership Conf., Aug. 1994.)

What about this denomination? What gives them the assurance that they are it? Do they have a “Thus saith the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob” or are they basing their conviction on what some people have told them?

Seventh Day Adventists

"Since we keep all Ten Commandments and have Ellen White as our prophet, we Seventh-day Adventists are The Remnant Church!"

Here are some words from Ellen White: "In my books, the truth is stated, barricaded by a 'Thus saith YHVH.'"

(Adventist Review, Oct. 1, 1992, p. 23.) "The local (SDA) church becomes the 'port of entry' to the kingdom of Elohim."

(Adventist Review, June 2, 1988, p. 9.) "... when we backslide from the church, we also backslide from Elohim."

Here is a statement by Dan O'Ffill, a SDA evangelist: "The entire world is deceived today. Truth has been covered up with error. The Protestant churches have accepted the teaching of the antichrist...And so most (non-SDA) church members are in mortal danger, but don't know it. ... the Seventh-day Adventist Church is the world's last hope for rescue ..." (1994 R&H pp. 16, 18.)

What about the members of the SDA denomination? Does that membership guarantee me eternal life? Do these people have a “Thus saith the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob”? I used to believe it until I came to the conviction that this is not the case! Was I truly redeemed as I believed for so many years and others still believe to this day or can we speak about a serious deception based wholly on man’s promises?

I am not the judge, and I am not interested in offending and condemning people, but I am interested in searching for the truth, knowing the truth, living the truth, sharing the truth, because only the truth makes us free!

The Philadelphia Church of Elohim

“The “household” is Elohim's Family or true church. It's the family that Elohim rules. This is Elohim's inner circle--His very elect ... we are Elohim's only true representative on this earth.” (The Philadelphia Trumpet, p.1 May 1995.)

Living Church of Elohim

“LCOG is the true Church of Elohim which teaches and practices Apostolic Christianity!”

What about these two denominations? What gives them the idea and confidence that they are the only true Church? Do they have a “Thus saith YHVH”?

Cooneyites

"We are not following some way founded in the early 1900's, but it goes clear back to Christ." "Some people say there are other fellowships that can be alright. No, there can't be, because there is only one body that Jesus had." "People can come to Christ only through us."

Iglesia ni Cristo

"Ours is the Church Christ founded." "Thus, outside the Church of Christ no one can be considered a true believer." (PASUGO, September/October 1981, p. 9.)

Here are two more organizations with a strong conviction that salvation can be obtained only by being a member of their group! What is their conviction based on?

Church of Elohim in Christ, Mennonite

"Elohim has made no covenant with any other church."
(John Holdeman, A History of the Church, p. 20.)

This is a very strong statement and they are very sincere and confident that they are correct. However, what gives them this assurance? Did Yahuwah give them this promise or was it given by a man?

Judaism

"Jews believe that the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob is the one and only true Elohim, the Creator of the universe. He entered into a covenant with the ancient Israelites, marking them his Chosen People, giving them a mission to spread the gospel of salvation to the rest of the world."

They obviously possess the truth of salvation! They have the word from Yahshua himself, when he said to the Samaritan woman in John 4:22 "salvation is of the Jews." And Paul states in Romans 3:2 "unto them were committed the oracles of Elohim."

Could these promises be conditional?

The Islam:

The Muslims claim that Islam is the only true religion that will guarantee a person eternal life and to enter paradise.

The final Prophet of Islam is reported to have said, “Any one who says: There is no Elohim but Allah, and dies holding that (belief) will enter paradise.”

In Qur'an 5:3 it states: “This day have I perfected your religion for you, completed my favor upon you, and have chosen for you Islam as your religion.”

Qur'an 3:19 "The only religion approved by Elohim is Islam (Submission)”

Then Qur'an 3:85 “If anyone desires a religion other than Islam, never will it be accepted of Him.”

In addition, there are hundreds of different pagan religions like Buddhism, Hinduism, Shintoism, Taoism, Druidism, Shamanism, Wicca, Asatru, Neo-paganism, Eclectic paganism, and traditional Native American religions etc. all are claiming to enter into some life after death!

Confusion? We probably agree that most people, which are part of these religions or Christian denominations, are sincere and mean well, but they have been taught error. Not only that, they are so convinced that they are right that they only have the truth that leads to eternal life, that most of them will shun or condemn anyone that does not agree with them, especially when they leave their denomination or group.

CONFUSION?

It has to be obvious that all these 41,000 plus groups and denominations cannot be right, because there can be only one absolute truth that leads to eternal life! According to Ephesian 4:5 (the scriptures) there is only “one Master, one belief, one immersion (baptism)”.

And the name of this ONE Elohim is:

Yahuwah
(YHVH)

He himself gives us His name in Hebrew: "Ehyeh-Asher-Ehyeh" meaning "I AM that I AM"! Exodus 3:14

Yahuwah is called the Divine Name and the Tetragrammaton, or four-letter word, because it has four letters in Hebrew. Most Jewish people won't even say Yahuwah. Instead, they say HASHEM — a Hebrew word that means “The Name”, or they say Adonai—the Hebrew word for Lord. Yahuwah is also called the unspeakable Name, but Elohim's Name is not unspeakable.

Yahuwah's Name doesn't appear in most of the popular English Bible translations. They substitute the titles “LORD” and “GOD” with all the letters capitalized where the Name “Yahuwah” actually belongs.

Jewish religious leaders introduced this tradition in the mid-2nd century B.C., and it has continued since that time. This man-made tradition — which achieved near-universal acceptance in 1611 A.D. when the King James Bible editors failed to include the Name “Yahuwah” in their inaugural edition. This is wrong and dangerous for two reasons. First, it nullifies Yahuwah’s explicit command to tell the world that we have only One Elohim—Yahuwah. Second, according to the Bible, Yahuwah is the only Name in which we have salvation.

That’s a startling fact to most Christians because they have never heard a preacher say it from the pulpit, but it is true nonetheless. The Name “Yahuwah” appears exactly 6,823 times in the Old Testament. Since the New Testament is loaded with direct quotes and paraphrased passages from the Old Testament, the Name “Yahuwah” should appear all over the New Testament as well. ... Unfortunately, most Christians have never seen Yahuwah’s Name in print! Since we were commanded to declare Yahuwah's Name to the world, this is a serious problem.

http://www.hisnameisYahuwah.org/hisnameisYahuwah_002.htm

We have salvation only in one Name and that is in the name of “YHVH” – Yahuwah!

Here is the proof:

”And it shall be that everyone who calls on the Name of יהוה shall be delivered.” Joel 2:32 (The Scriptures)

”And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of Yahuwah shall be delivered....” (Restoration Study Bible)

Peter quoted Joel 2:32:

”And it shall be that everyone who calls on the Name of יהוה shall be saved.” Acts 2:21 (The Scriptures)

“And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of Yahuwah shall be saved....” (Restoration Study Bible)

The apostle Paul quoted Joel 2:32:

”For everyone who calls on the Name of יהוה shall be saved.” Romans 10:13 (The Scriptures)

“For whosoever shall call upon the Name of Yahuwah shall be saved.” (Restoration Study Bible)

It’s heartbreaking that most Christians don’t know the Name of their Elohim—especially now. We live at a time when people around the world are being told by political and religious leaders that we all worship the same Elohim, but we call him by different names. That’s not true. All of us don’t worship the same Elohim. Satan must be the source of that lie. He has the most to gain from us not knowing Yahuwah’s Name and not declaring it to the world, but Satan’s lies can’t change the truth one iota. Satan can deceive us and make it difficult for us to see, but he has no power to alter Yahuwah's Word.

Deuteronomy 10:17 states:

“For יהוה your Elohim is Elohim of mighty ones and Master of masters, the great Ėl, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality nor takes a bribe.” The Scriptures

“For YHVH your Elohim is Elohim of Elohims, and Lord of lords, a great Elohim, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward.” (KJV)

Psalm 95:3 states:

“For יהוה is a great Ėl, And a great Sovereign above all mighty ones.” The Scriptures

“For YHVH is a great Elohim, and a great King above all Elohims.” (King James Version)

THE ONLY SAVIOR!

He said of Himself “ו, I am יהוה (YHVH = Yahuwah) and besides Me there is no Savior.” Isaiah 43:11 (The Scriptures)

When Yahuwah Elohim looked down from heaven, he saw Abram, a man who would be faithful as a husband and father, commanding his children and his household. He saw someone who would take personal responsibility for those placed under his influence and make sure they did what Elohim willed.

He saw an individual who would enforce the way of YHVH in his household. He did not see a man making excuses for disobedience. He did not see a man seeking his own personal pleasure at other people’s expense. He was chosen to be the man by whom all nations came to be blessed.

Here are the words of YHVH himself in Genesis 26:5 (The Scriptures) about Abraham: “because Abraham obeyed My voice and guarded My Charge: My commands, My laws, and My Torot (plural of Torah teachings) .”

Remember, Abraham grew up in an unbelieving and idolatrous society. He was raised in a home that was pagan. His native city of Ur was in Chaldea, between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers.

Isaiah refers to Abraham as “the rock from which you were hewn” and “to the hole of the pit from you were dug” (Isaiah 51:1-2 (the Scriptures)), reminding his fellow Jews that Elohim sovereignly condescended to call Abraham out of paganism and idolatry in order to bless him and the world through him. When YHVH spoke to him, he listened, when He promised, he trusted and believed and when He commanded, he obeyed willingly.

Yahuwah made a covenant with Abram. This covenant was an unconditional one. He did not say, "Abram, if you do certain things, then I will do certain things". Yahuwah's promise to Abram was unconditional.

He said, “And I shall make you a great nation, and bless you and make your name great, and you shall be a blessing! 3. And I shall bless those who bless you and curse him who curses you. And in you all the clans of the earth shall be blessed.”

Genesis 12:2-3 (The Scriptures)

Let's remember the words of Yahusha to the Samaritan woman in John 4:22 (KJV): “salvation is of (from) the Jews.” In what way?

According to Paul in Romans 3:2 (KJV) “unto them were committed the oracles of YAH.”

Or from the Scripture translation: “they were entrusted with the Words of Elohim.” (Meaning the Torah, his instructions)

Paul is emphasizing the great privilege and responsibility that was committed to that people when Yahuwah gave His "oracles" to them, a word implying "divinely inspired utterances," a blueprint leading to eternal life!

The "oracles of YAH" the Torah, with the Prophets and Psalms constitute the very utterances of the Almighty. These obviously should be believed, studied, obeyed, and proclaimed by all who consider themselves followers of Yahusha.

The Torah is the expression of Yahuwah's will, the unadulterated truth, and it is through obedience to that Torah that Yahuwah accepts the children of men as his sons and daughters.

Here is the proof!

"...If you listen to me and do what I tell you, I will be your Elohim, you will be my people, and all will go well for you." Jeremiah 7:23 (Contemporary English Version)

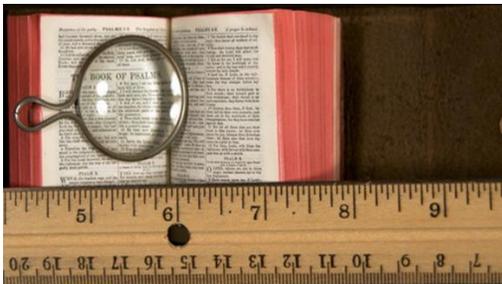

That still applies today, because according to Malachi 3:6 "YHVH does not change!"

Thefigtreegeneration.net

That simply means "STOP searching for the truth", for Torah is "the" Truth!

Stop looking, there is only "One" truth, which is "the" truth, called "Torah"!

The third chapter of the book of Proverbs (3:13-19), speaks of the Torah in terms of "Wisdom and Understanding", calling it a "Tree of Life." The Torah is this "Tree of Life" that founded the earth and established the heavens!

The Torah is a way of life. From birth to death, Yahuwah's Torah teaches his people how to live a holy life. The Torah covers such areas as community, medicine, diet, health, Clothing, housing, safety, morality,

....ceremonies, holy days, worship, relationships between family and neighbors and the list is practically endless.

The Torah is not a book to be left on the shelf but a living word to guide, lead and direct the lives of Yahuwah's people each day. It is a book; we must meditate on day and night!

Here are the words in Psalm 1:1-2 (the Scriptures) “Blessed is the man who shall not walk in the counsel of the wrong, And shall not stand in the path of sinners, And shall not sit in the seat of scoffers, but his delight is in the Torah of יהוה, And he meditates in His Torah day and night.”

Yahuwah Elohim chose Abram, called him and established his covenant with him, which was Non-negotiable. He reiterated it six more times to Abraham, to his son Isaac and to his grandson Jacob. He reiterated His covenant with Israel through Moses, it was repeated by the prophets and rehearsed by the psalmists.

Yahusha Himself affirmed it (Matthew 19:28), Paul articulated it (Romans 9-11), and the gates of the New Jerusalem will announce it forever (Revelation 22:11-12). This confirms that Yahuwah Elohim has chosen Israel as His covenant people forever. He gave them His Torah, His instructions, the light of divine truth!

There was a time when the Jewish nation was faithful to their Elohim YHVH and He honored them. They were blessed and favored above all the people of the earth. (Deuteronomy 7:6-9) At the end of his life Moses warned Israel in Deuteronomy 34:16-18 that YHVH would abandon the nation, when it apostatized and served the no-Elohims of the heathen.

“And יהוה said to Mosheh, “See, you are about to sleep with your fathers. And this people shall rise and whore after the mighty ones of the strangers of the land into the midst of which they shall enter, and forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them. 17. Then My displeasure shall burn against them in that day, and I shall forsake them and hide My face from them, and they shall be consumed. And many evils and distresses shall come upon them, and it shall be said in that day, 'Is it not because our Elohim is not in our midst that these evils have come upon us?' 18 "And I shall certainly hide My face in that day, because of all the evil which they have done, for they shall turn to other mighty ones." (The Scriptures)

Yahuwah Elohim promised to forsake the Nation of Israel if they abandoned HIM for the sake of idols. If they abandoned Him, He would abandon them. He would leave them to the not-so-tender mercies of the heathen nations. The result of Israel's apostasy, every time, was slavery to foreigners. The worship of foreign Elohims brought the tyranny of foreign rulers. This was the story from the time of the judges until the exile.

But inside the boundaries of Israel there was always a faithful remnant as we see in 1. Kings 19:18. "And I shall leave seven thousand in Yisra'el, all whose knees have not bowed to Ba'al, and every mouth that has not kissed him." (The Scriptures)

So, Yahuwah Elohim still honored His covenant with Israel in Elijah's time because of the faithfulness of a small remnant, which preserved Israel from complete abandonment by Him. In short, even though the vast majority of Israel always seemed to depart into idolatry, a small remnant remained faithful to YHVH. He preserved His covenant with Israel as a nation for His name's sake, because of His covenant He made with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and because of a faithful small remnant. Jacob had announced prophetically in Genesis 49, 10 that Israel would be preserved as a nation at least until Shiloh (Yahusha) came.

However, as a nation they rejected the Messiah when He came to earth. Yahuwah did not compel them to reject and to crucify His son. He did not compel them to forsake him, but they did so by their own free will. Yet their unbelief, rejection, and the crucifixion of Yahusha did not defeat, thwart, overturn or even hinder Yahuwah's prupose of grace to all people that will respond to HIM.

He did cast off the nation of Israel for almost 2,000 years, but he did not cast them off forever, nor his elect people, the spiritual Israel. He forsook the physical nation for a while, blindness in part is happened to them, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in according to Paul in Romans 11, 25!

Today, the 10 tribes are scattered among the nations, Judah was allowed to return to the Land after the Babylonian captivity. They became a nation again in 1948 as prophesied. However, the Jewish religion itself is only a show, an empty shell, a meaningless, useless, pointless changing of old prayers and traditions, because most of them still refuse to accept Yahusha as the Messiah.

The center of their present religion is the temple, the priesthood, the mercy-seat, and the sacrifice, which they don't have, but they desperately working on to reinstate these things. Has Yahuwah forsaken the people who were once favored above all the people of the earth?

What about Christianity, the Christian Church that claims to have replaced Israel (the Jewish people and the Land)? They claim to be the historic continuation of Israel and since Pentecost of Acts 2, the term "Israel," as found in the Bible, refers to them now. The promises, covenants and blessings ascribed to Israel in the Bible have been taken away from the Jews and been given to the Christian Church but the Jews are subject to the curses found in the Bible, as a result of their rejection of the Messiah. That doesn't agree with reality, the truth, because Elohim never made or will he make a covenant with Christianity. The new covenant is being made with the House of Israel and the House of Judah.

The truth is that Yahusha never started the Christian Church. This is a man-made institution. Christianity, the way we know it today with their Greek Messiah called Jesus, was started by Constantine. The departures from the original Church (the Nazarenes) blossomed in the 2nd century and grew in number and seriousness with each passing generation. The most significant of the early departures occurred when the Roman General Constantine embraced Christianity in his struggle for Victory in a civil war with Gen. Maxentius, leader of the old pagan element of Rome. This occurred in 312 A.D. Achieving victory, Constantine now the emperor, through a series of edicts gradually turned Christianity into a state religion of the empire.

The truth is that Christianity then and today has nothing in common with the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The disciples of Yahusha called themselves “the followers of the Way”. Others nicknamed the first followers “Christians”, which was not a compliment. Christianity is a mixture of Torah with customs from Babylonian Paganism! It is a way of life about the Messiah of Israel, divided into over 41,000 sects interpreting the Torah, with special days of the year adopted from Satanic, Pagan origins. Again, “Christianity” is not the religion that Yahusha established. Christianity as a system is corrupted as the Bible puts it. As far as their teachings and practices go, Christianity is the religion of the Anti-Christ, the Anti-Messiah!

Following there is a list of some of the many biblical teachings that I and others re-discovered that had been lost during the past 2,000 years.

- The division between Old and New Testament is man-made.
- The covenant YHVH made with His faithful, obedient people is everlasting and still binding.
- The Christian Church is filled with pagan doctrines & teachings.
- YHVH has never made a covenant with Christianity and never will. He will make a covenant with the house of Israel & Judah.
- Grace and Mercy cannot exist without obedience to Torah.
- The Creator has a name and wants to be called by His Name, which he mentioned over 7,000 times in the Hebrew Scriptures.
- The Trinity is a pagan doctrine.
- Sunday, Christmas, Easter, Lent, Halloween, etc. are of pagan origin and are an abomination to YHVH.
- Yahusha died on a Wednesday and was raised on a Sabbath during the year of crucifixion.

The Sabbath was and still is a sign of the covenant he made with His people.

Exodus 31:17 Tells us that the Sabbath is a Sign

Exodus 31:17 'Between Me and the children of Yisra'el it is a sign forever. For in six days אלהים made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.' "

Life Line to Yahshua Ministries

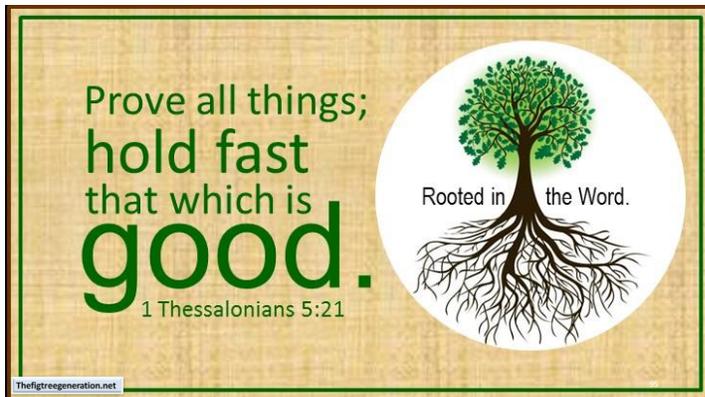

The Torah is the seal, we must be sealed with, then and now.

Isaiah 8:16 Tells us that the Torah is a Seal

Isaiah 8:16 Bind up the witness, seal the Torah among my taught ones.

- Yahuwah's seven yearly appointed feasts are a compacted prophecy of the plan of salvation. They were and still are, a part of the everlasting covenant, blood ratified by Moses at Sinai.
 - The Biblical day starts at dawn, meaning that the weekly Sabbath also starts at dawn, not at sundown as many Sabbath-keeper teach.
 - The moon does not determine the beginning of the month, nor year. The new year begins one day after the spring equinox.
 - Baptism according to Scripture is by immersion. Baby baptism originated in paganism.
 - There is no secret pre-tribulation rapture according to Scripture.
 - Yahusha will not reign on this corrupt, sinful planet for 1000 years. He will reign on the new earth, re-created by HIM.
 - Yahusha's ministry lasted 490 days (1 yr pls) and not 3 ½ years,
- At death, the soul does not immediately go to heaven, man sleeps in the grave until the resurrection at the Second Coming.
 - The cross as well as the steeples on Church buildings come from paganism.
 - Some denominations teach about a lunar Sabbath, once saved, always saved, a second probation, a temple being built during a 1,000-year reign of Messiah with animal sacrifices, a Sunday Law being the mark of the beast, the tithing system of the Levitical system, the law (Torah) ended at the cross, speaking in unknown tongues and more. All these teachings we discovered are not biblical, but doctrines and teachings of man.
 - Maybe you do not agree with some of the things that I listed here, so search Scripture for yourself as this is the command of YHVH.

Our only hope and safety is to turn from man-made religion to the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac and Israel and to His Son Yahusha Ha Mashiach, accept His sacrifice and follow His instructions as revealed in Torah, the Tree of Life!

You cannot be a member in regular and good standing in any Christian Church or denomination and at the same time follow a “Thus saith Yahuwah!” It is impossible. Being a member of any denomination, you must adhere to THEIR established creeds or be disfellowshipped!

If you demand and follow a “Thus saith YHVH” you are not welcomed there, because you are considered a TROUBLEMAKER!

Yahuwah still has a people. It is not the great cathedral, neither is it the national establishment, neither is it the various denominations; it is the people who love HIM and keep His Torah, the commandments with the statutes and judgments.

Yahusha states in Matthew 18:20 "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Where Yahusha is even among the humble few, those that a Torah observant, this is His assembly, his congregation, His people. Only the presence of one who inhabits eternity can constitute His assembly. Where two or three are present who love and obey His commandments, statutes and judgments, Yahusha presides, this may be in the desolate places of the earth, in the wilderness, in the city enclosed in prison walls, in a building, yes, even in a Zoom meeting!

Again, the question, what must we be looking for?

In no case should we be looking for a man-made church organization, which will be your damnation. Look for a few true and faithful believers, that love Yahuwah Elohim, the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel that will not fight His instructions as revealed in the written Torah and that follow the living Torah Yahusha Messiah and worship with them!

Revelation 14, 1 and 4:

“And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. 4. These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the Firstfruits unto Elohim and to the Lamb.”

The 144,000 were not defiled with women!

In Revelation 12, a woman is symbolic of the nation of Israel or can we say a pure church, and in Revelation 17 and 18 she represents the false system of Babylon, a harlot church. In Ezekiel 16, Elohim uses a woman to symbolize Israel: "Aholah" is the kingdom of Israel and "Aholibah" is the kingdom of Judah.

Every time a woman is used as a symbol, the common denominator is the idea of a system of beliefs and practices that influence other people. A church or religion is a system of beliefs and practices.

Scripture clearly affirms that Yahuwah is truth, He speaks truth and He cannot lie. Scripture also affirms on the other hand that Satan is a liar and the father of lies and goes around deceiving people. The people of Elohim have always been plagued with false doctrines. The invasion of false prophets, false teachers, false apostles, false Messiahs has been something which the people of Elohim have endured through all the ages. A steady stream of false teachings has been cumulative during the past 2,000 years so that it is wider and deeper now than it has ever been in human history.

The effects of false teachings have been and are devastating and damning. Therefore, we cannot trust what we hear or see. As we had seen in the beginning of this presentation every church, denomination, sect or group claim that they have the unadulterated truth. That claim cannot be trusted, we are individually commanded to “Prove all things...!” (1Thessalonians 5:21) and “not to believe every spirit, but to try the spirits whether they are of Yahuwah: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.” (1John 4:1)

Let us be reminded of the word of Yahusha our Redeemer, when he stated: “But in vain do they worship Me, teaching as teachings the commands of men.” The Scriptures – Matthew 15:9

“In vain do they worship Me.” Let us not do that but search for the truth and worship the Father “in Spirit and Truth”!
