

I AM A PROBLEM SOLVER

I can choose the right outcome

What Can You Control?

You are in the drivers seat

- 1. We can control what we choose to think about.*
- 2. We can control what we choose to say.*
- 3. We can control what we choose to do.*

We have control over how we act!

DIFFERENT LEARNING STYLES

& tips for teaching

Guided Instruction

Scenario Session (RADAR)

Break classroom into groups. R.A.D.A.R-
Read it, Ask Questions, deliberate and discuss, Act it out/Role Play, Report Out

RADAR

R - Read It

A - Ask Questions

D - Deliberate and Discuss]

A - Act It Out - Role Play **

R - Report Out

Scenarios: What would you do if.....

One of your classmates comes to school smelling like they have not bathed. Their clothing is dirty and you can tell they have worn it for more than a day. What would you do:

1. Make fun, point at them and laugh
2. Think of a way you can be supportive
3. Ignore it
4. I don't know

2. One of your friends asks you to go into the bathroom with them on the way to class. They proceed to pull out a vaping pen and smoke and then they hand it over to you. What would you do?

- Follow them and smoke.
- Do nothing.
- Walk out and report it to an adult.
- Tell them

3. You witness a kid in your class being bullied by a group of kids you know.

How do you respond?

1. You keep walking and don't get involved.
2. You join in on the bullying.
3. You approach the group and attempt to help the kid.
4. Other (write it in)

 Act it out next lesson

