

Terms and Conditions

The Money Reset

By purchasing The Money Reset: Build Consistency Without Starting Over, you agree to the following terms.

Digital Mini course and access

The Money Reset is a digital mini course delivered online via a course platform called Teachery.

After successful payment, you will receive instructions to access the course. You will be asked to create a free Teachery login in order to view the content. There is no cost to use Teachery, and you do not need to purchase anything additional to access your course.

You are responsible for ensuring you have a suitable device and internet connection to access the materials.

No refunds

Due to the digital nature of this mini course and the immediate access provided, all sales are final and non-refundable.

Please ensure you have read the course description carefully before purchasing.

Personal use only

Your purchase provides access for personal, non-commercial use only.

You may not share, resell, distribute, reproduce, or make available any part of the course materials to others.

Not personalised financial advice

The Money Reset is provided for educational and informational purposes only.

It does not constitute personalised financial, legal, or investment advice. You remain fully responsible for your own financial decisions and actions.

Course updates and changes

From time to time, course content may be updated or adjusted to improve clarity or accuracy. Unless otherwise stated, access to updates is included with your purchase.

Feedback and improvements

At The Girl Budgets, we are always looking to improve what we create.

If you have feedback, questions, or experience technical issues accessing the course, you are welcome to get in touch at: hello@thegirlbudgets.com.

While refunds are not available, your feedback helps us continue to refine and improve our resources.
